Notice.

I have rented Reunion Park, except for the time the Reunion is to be held, and this is to request all parties to keep out of it, as I have stock in it, and do not wish picnic parties, campers or hunters in there. I trust this notice will be sufficient, and that I will not have to bring any prosecutions for trespass.

W. T. Gregory.

Tom Lewis had business in Vinita the fore part of the week.

Miss Swabnie Smith visited friends in Pittsburg the fore part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Coleman of Joplin attended the funeral of U. T. Gaba in this city.

Rev. Fred Busch of St. Mark's church is in Topeka this week, but his place at St. Mark's will be filled by Rev. John Bennett of Kansas City, Kansas, next Sunday. The following Sunday Mr. Busch will occupy the pulpit.

J. W. Grantham is going to make the front of his new business block out of white glazed brick instead of marble. The white glazed brick is much nicer, for the reason that it can be washed when it gets dirty, and marble discolors.

Miss Mabel Rummel is here from San Juan, Texas. She says Mr. and Mrs. Rummel are well and doing well. The work of farming, she says, was too heavy for Mr. Rummel, and he has it all done with hired help now. Miss Mabel says she likes it in Texas, and does not want to live anywhere else.

The American people are not as anxious for war as they used to be. Not that they are afraid. Far from it. But they have been taught that war is an expensive thing, and humanity demands that differences be settled in some other way. But it will not do to crowd too far, and Mexico will do well to understand this.

Miss Maude Button visited in Miami last week.

Hugh McCammon of Miami spent Sunday in Baxter.

A building and loan association has been formed at Miami.

Mrs. Malona McKeinzie visited friends in Galena last Friday.

FOR SALE—Fresh cow. Bob Parr, half a mile west of post-office.

Walter Kitchen was here from Miami last Thursday to visit friends.

There was a regular epidemic of weddings in Baxter Springs Sunday.

Lee Livingston and Geo. Buchanan spent Sunday with friends in Miami.

Galena is going to have a "Get Acquainted" Day. Something is surely needed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Collins of Miami spent Friday with relatives in Baxter.

Mrs. Wm. Waugh attended the funeral of James Farrar in Joplin last Saturday.

Every day is Booster Day in Baxter Springs, since it got to be such a good place to trade.

Mrs. Chas. Gaines visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Blanchard, near Miami last week.

Ed. Polster has bought the old Springs hotel corner, and will build a nice home there. It is one of the nicest corners in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Embree of Miami spent the fore part of last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Embree, in this city.

Steve Etter has sold his bakery to J. T. Highsmith of Sulphur Springs, Ark. Mr. Highsmith is an expert baker, we understand, and will endeavor to build up a big business here.

T. J. Embry of Route 5 advertised eggs for hatching some time ago. The adv. appeared four times in the News and Mr. Embry says he shipped eggs all over the United States and some to Canada.

The case of the state of Kansas versus Joe Jenkins and Stella Hudson was tried before a jury in Justice Jones' court on Thursday of last week. The jury was composed of five men, W. T. Apple, A. B. Willard, E. Richardson, Kenneth Brown and W. H. Palmer. All day was required in the trial of the case, and the jurors earned their fees. The state was represented by Deputy County Attorney Don Elleman and Grant Waggoner and the defense by C. B. Skidmore and Fred Walker. Elleman gave the jury to understand that he did not intend to try and convict Jenkins on a "white slave" charge, for Jenkins and his inamorata were too black, but that he would endeavor to show that they had not acted as good people should, and he made good, the jury finding both Jenkins and the woman guilty on two counts. The court sentenced Jenkins to jail for thirty days on each count, but the jury recommended leniency for the woman, and she was fined $5 on each count. King Wright, a colored man who has a kindly heart, got out and took up a collection and paid the woman out, but Jenkins is in Columbus, the guest of the county jailer. Needless to say the trial of the case drew a big crowd.

Parole is Revoked.

Judge Sapp Says R. J. Bland Violated Parole Agreement.

Judge Sapp has revoked the parole of R. J. Bland and Bland has been taken back to the county jail.

Bland was convicted some time ago of violating the prohibitory law, and was sentenced to jail for eleven months. After serving a short time in jail he notified Judge Sapp that if he would parole him he would leave the state and stay away. This seemed to be a good proposition, and the judge paroled him, with the distinct understanding that he would leave the state and stay. Bland said he would go to Oklahoma.

However, he did not go, and Sapp revoked the parole. Deputy Sheriff Cobb came down Thursday and took Bland back to jail.

On Tuesday of last week Bland was in Scammon, and while there got mixed up in a fracas which made him look like he had been through a cyclone. Some fellow blacked his eye, and knocked him down. His left arm was broken at the elbow, and he was otherwise injured.

As we understand it, the time Bland has been out on parole does not count off on the eleven months.

Ackerson--Main.

Miss Mary Ackerson, a popular young lady of Altamont, Kas., was married at the home of her parents in that city last Sunday at high noon, by Rev. W. H. Driver, to Mr. S. R. Main of Baxter Springs.

The bride is a fine young woman. She is known here, where she has visited several times.

The groom is a sterling young man. He has been here for some time, and was a member of the Main Hardware Company, which burned out a few months ago.

The young couple will make their home in Baxter Springs.

Bartlett-Schloeman.

Miss Julia Bartlett, one of the fine young women of Baxter, was married on Sunday evening at the home of her mother in the Third ward, to Mr. E. H. Schloeman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. L. Jones.

The bride is one of the nicest young women in the city, and the groom is the owner of the Baxter Cab and Transfer line. He is one of the most energetic men in town.

Garner-McCammon.

Mack McCammon of Miami and Miss Lena Garner of Cassville, Mo., were married on Sunday morning in this city by Rev. Hoopingarner.

They left Sunday forenoon for Cassville to acquaint the parents of the bride with the facts of the marriage.

Mr. McCammon met the young lady in Miami while she was visiting there, and the wedding was the culmination of that acquaintance.

They will live in Miami.

Smiley--Yeager.

Prof. C. M. Yeager, principal of the colored schools of this city, was married at Weir City on Sunday evening to Miss Stella M. Smiley, a fine young colored woman of Weir City.

They will make their home in Baxter Springs, where the groom will again have charge of the colored schools.

Great Opportunities.

This is an age of opportunity. It is easier to do business now with a bank account on which you can check, than it was in the old days of coon skin and wampum.

The young man of today lives in a time when great opportunities are at his command. If he uses economy in the conduct of his affairs, is modern and has an account at the bank, the chances for him to attain financial success are greater than those of his father or grandfather. It is never too late to cultivate the banking habit, which is the modern gateway to success.

Miss Kate Banning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Banning, is laid up with a bad case of measles.

J. E. Schnebley has resigned his position with A. R. Kane, and has gone to Pittsburg, where he has opened a drug store of his own.

Street Commissioner Horton is doing some mighty nice work on Sheridan street. The concrete crossings and gutters being put in are fine, indeed, and will do much toward keeping the street in good condition.

East street was graded last week. The work was done under the supervision of Street Commissioner Horton, and now if the city will have the street graveled, trouble with it will be over for a long time.

Ray McNaughton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McNaughton, living about ten miles south of this city, in Ottawa county, Okla., has announced his candidacy for county attorney of Ottawa county. Ray is one of the finest young men in Ottawa county, and we hope to see him land the office.

One hundred and one pension checks come to Baxter Springs each quarter. It is safe to say they average sixty dollars each. "Every little bit helps."

Keep baby
HEALTHY.

Strong,
Pretty,
Cheap.

Mr. and Mrs. New Parents:—

To have a happy, HEALTHY BABY, you must keep him comfortable. You can invest no money to better advantage than in a sanitary baby-bed, a springy go-cart and a high-chair. We have all the latest inventions in furniture for babies, God bless 'em! Bring them to us when young; when they are old they will come back to us. You will find that the baby cannot kick out our goods. You will not kick at our prices.
